WELCOME TO PRIEST.

Several Thousand People Gather to Greet the New Pastor at Notre Dame Church.

Notre Dame parish welcomed their new priest, Kev. Eugene C. Drouhin, of Woodstock to St. Johnsbury on Thursday evening with prolonged ringing of oells, illuminations and decorations. The presbytery was gay with bunting, American, French and Canadian flags, Japanese lanterns and the words "Welcome" and "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord," in French and illuminated. Harmony bana played during the evening and the Guard Champlain and the Guard of Honor were drawn up in line and presented arms when Father Drouhin arrived.

Jovite Pinard, one of the oldest parishioners read a letter from the church people to Father Drouhin, expressing their joy that he had come to minister to them and to console them for their loss in the death of Father Boissonnault. The exercises also included a short greeting by Master Oscar Roy and the presentation of a bouquet by Miss Germaine Prevost. Father Drouhin responded to everything in French and also spoke a few words in English. Father Boire of Lebanon, N. H., Father O'Leary, vice chancellor of the diocese of Manchester, N. H., and Father McCooey of Andover, N. H., Mrs. Palmer was born August 6, accompanied Father Drouhin to St. Johnsbury. Fathers Bastien of Newport, Leblanc of Barton and Pont- Wiley. Her life was spent in Maine briand of Lyndonville also attended the reception.

Although Father Drouhin is to retain part of the cares of the Woodstock parish for a few weeks he has assumed charge of Notre Dame church. On Sunday at two o'clock he met the children of the parish from infants up to fifteen years at the church and held a service for them. He addressed the children, presented them with cards |ed Sunday by Rev. Mr. French; singand souvenirs, and dismissed them ing by Mrs. Henry Cowles. There with his blessing.

In 1905, the rectory was moved and completely renovated at a cost of over $3,000, and today the entire property, valued at $35,000 and entirely free from debt stands as a monument to what has been accomplished by the hard work and untiring efforts of the Rev. Father Drouhin. The church, while small, has an air of elegance, with its marble altar, imported statuary and statues of the cross. beautifully stained glass windows, magnificent pipe organ and baptistry chapel, the latter being a single gift from a friend. The organ was largely the gift of non-Catholics. Among other good works which Father Drouhin has done since coming here was the establishment of a club room, two years ago, for the young men of the parish. The rooms, heated by steam and lighted by electricity, are open every day and are self-supporting. Father Drouhin's departure from Woodstock is universally regretted here where he has made a host of friends along the Protestants as well as his own people. Mead. It is high time to put a stop to this traffic in public office and honor. That Dr. Mead used money illegally in securing the nomination we have no direct proof. But circumstances are often stronger than facts. Does it look reasonable that no less than a dozen men, known as active politicians, gave up a remunerative law practice and devoted at least six months to the interests of Dr. Mead without receiving something therefor? And furthermore, a clear conscience would assert itself by publishing a schedule of expenses, so loudly called for.
